

Cookie Butter Crackers

Level: Easy

Prep Time: 15 minutes

Serves: about 35

Dipping Time: 25 minutes

One (200 g) box Ritz Original Crackers

One (14.1 oz.) jar Trader Joe's Speculoos Cookie Butter

One (24 oz.) package Almond Bark, chocolate flavored

Sprinkles, crushed candy, or other decoration (optional)

Place a heaping teaspoon of cookie butter on the center of a cracker. With another cracker, make a sandwich. (Make sure the flat sides of the crackers are on the outside.) Press gently so the cookie butter spreads out to the edges of the cracker. Make all the sandwiches before dipping in the chocolate.

In a microwave safe bowl, melt the almond bark according to the package instructions. With tongs, dip and roll the sandwiches in the chocolate until all sides are covered. Place each sandwich on a baking sheet lined with wax paper. Decorate with sprinkles, if desired, before the chocolate cools and hardens.

Notes:

- Trader Joe's Speculoos Cookie Butter also comes in a Crunchy version.
- If you don't have Trader Joe's Speculoos Cookie Butter, Peter Pan Peanut Butter is a delicious substitute.
